

HTT TELEMETRY VIEW
Satellite Monitoring and Control Online Interface

Major Features

- Web based user interface Data managed on High Tide Technologies servers so user does not need IT expertise to support
- Secure access from any Internet connected computer
- Simple menu driven user interface requiring little or no training
- Quick access to current system status
- Flexible customization with customer logos and preferences
- Alarms sent directly to email boxes, cell phones and text pagers
- User configurable alarm levels automatically sent to the field units
- User configurable alarm recipients
- Ability to control state of pumps and valves from your desktop
- Access to historical data in tabular and graphical formats
- Various automatically generated and stored reports in Excel format

